

WIFE OF RICH MAN ANNOYS ROOSEVELT

Mrs. William W. Holmes, of Brooklyn, Arrested in Washington on Husband's Order.

WROTE MANY LETTERS.

Mr. Holmes Says She Is Demented and Will Be Brought Back.

Mrs. Elizabeth M. Holmes, of No. 570 57th street, Brooklyn, was arrested in Washington to-day, where she has been sending annoying letters to President Roosevelt. The arrest was at the request of her husband, William W. Holmes, of No. 29 Gold street, this city, a wealthy nickel-plate manufacturer.

Fearing a duplication of the case of Mrs. Morris, Secret Service men and the local and Washington police started out on a hunt for Mrs. Holmes, which resulted in her being apprehended at the home of friends.

When Mrs. Holmes was arrested she stated that she had some papers for President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft that would reveal startling things to them. She maintained that her mission was in the interests of peace, and that she must see the President at any cost.

"I propose to unmask three traitors, at least," said Mrs. Holmes. "I represent Mrs. Elizabeth Grannis, President of the National Purity League and an exponent of woman's rights."

When shown the telegram from her husband, which read: "Arrest my wife; believed demented," she refused to believe he had sent it.

"I have a letter to the Vice-President," said Mrs. Holmes, "and am otherwise clothed with good credentials. I must see him, and I don't propose to be ejected from the White House, like Mrs. Morris. Recently I wrote Dr. Minor Morris, and I will notify him of my presence here. He knows something about my secret mission."

Mrs. Holmes when seen at his office to-day by an Evening World reporter said he did not doubt his wife had written to all the persons she is credited with annoying.

"Her mania is writing letters," said Mr. Holmes, "and she has strong opinions on the subject of President Roosevelt. In addition to this she imagines she is pursued by a band of rascals, and she thinks the President is in league with them."

"I am deeply grieved to think of her going to Washington and stirring up all this trouble for the poor woman is demented. She is suffering from paranoia. A year ago it was necessary to have her confined at Rivercrest. She escaped from that place and I had not the heart to send her back. Except for her strange mania of writing letters and imagining herself pursued by rascals she is quite sane and reasonable."

Strange Feature of the Case. "One other thing worries her. She thinks I am the one who is crazy. Once she had me taken to the asylum on the theory that it was necessary to commit me to an asylum."

"It was then that I had her placed in Rivercrest. When I received word from Washington of her actions I telegraphed at once to have her taken into custody and sent to me. I will have to put her away again, though it is an hardship for a man to see his wife in an asylum."

"Mrs. Holmes' strong aversion to President Roosevelt started when he issued his statement concerning the suicide. She has never liked him since. She writes letters by the dozens and always puts a special delivery stamp on them."

"She has made serious trouble for me before. After she escaped from Rivercrest she wrote me from there to get away. Then she set in to stir up the authorities about a Chinese woman incarcerated at Rivercrest. She wrote all the Chinese officials and to members of Congress. There will be no trouble for me, I am sure. I have telegraphed at length and I expect her to be sent home at once. When she arrives I will have to send her to a sanitarium."

LURED TO BRONX AND THEN ROBBED

John M. Dee, of Buffalo, Drank with Strangers and Is Now in Hospital.

On his first visit to New York and as a result of trusting himself to the guidance of the first pair of smooth-tongued strangers who accosted him, John M. Dee, twenty-two years old, of No. 653 Front street, Buffalo, is at Lebonon Hospital in a semi-conscious condition, with a possible fracture of the skull from a blackjack. He was assaulted by the strangers in St. Mary's Park, One Hundred and Forty-fifth street and St. Anne's avenue, the Bronx, and robbed of $50 in cash and two watches.

Dee was found early to-day staggering along Willis avenue by Policeman McAvaney. He had no idea of his whereabouts and it was some time after he had been taken to the hospital that he was able to tell his story. He came to New York on Tuesday and stayed overnight at the Broadway central hotel. Last night he went to the theatre and took several drinks between acts, and after the show while standing at Forty-second street and Broadway two strangers hailed him. They invited him to have a drink and he went with them. The men were each about 6 feet 7 inches tall. One wore a short black overcoat, was clean-shaven and weighed about 135 pounds. The other had a small black mustache, wore a long black overcoat and weighed about 150 pounds.

Dee says they offered to take him to their boarding-house, where he could get a room cheaper than at the hotel. They went by the Subway. One Street and another street, and then Third avenue. Then they went to the park, and one of the men pinned him from behind and held the other behind him over the head with a blackjack.

One of the watches stolen was of gold, with initials "J. D." and a popular engraved on it. The other was made of silver-hold chains.

West Side Belle to Become a Bride.

Miss Florence Mott, of No. 143 West Seventy-fifth street, one of the most popular young women of the west side, will be married to John Finck on Feb. 7 in St. Thomas's Church.

The matron of honor will be Mrs. Isaac Bell Brennan, the bride's sister, and the bridesmaids will be Misses Ethel Findley, Josephine Hall, May Farrell and Edna Duffrey. The bridesmaids will wear gowns of pink tulle, and the bride will wear a gown of white with large areas of pink tulle, and will be carried by two bridesmaids.

BURGLAR "STUNG" BY BAD HALF DOLLAR.

Only Ray of Comfort to Grocer Whose Place Was Robbed Last Night.

That somewhere in New York to-day a burglar may find himself "stung" when he tries to pass a half dollar is the sustaining and cheering hope of Arthur Curtis, whose grocery store at No. 871 Columbus avenue, was broken into last night. The half dollar is bad and with two genuine dimes was all the money in the cash drawer, although the burglar got away with a new suit of clothes that Mr. Curtis had never worn and several dozen boxes of canned salmon and kippered herring.

"I told the police at daylight to-day," said Mr. Curtis, "and about 6 o'clock they sent a uniformed policeman around. He looked over the shop and said: 'We know who did this. Don't say anything about it and the detectives will catch the men. The detectives will be around in an hour.'"

"I waited for detectives and none appeared. Only two nights ago Levy's butcher shop at No. 571, right across the street, was broken into, but nothing was done by the police. I'm sorry about the suit of clothes, but I would like to see that burglar's face, when he tries to pass that half dollar."

Constipation and Its Causes

A Well-Known Remedy

Constipation is one of man's worst enemies, and half the bodily ills we suffer from are a result thereof. Nature makes it the bowels should be kept free and open—that we should have a free movement at least once a day. Of course, we ourselves are to a large extent responsible for our troubles by failure to observe Nature's laws. Our habits are irregular, we eat improper food with undue haste, and when we find our bowels do not move, have resort to powerful drugs and medicines which are so drastic in their action that, although they may purge at first, they damage the tender lining of the stomach and bowels, so as to leave a worse condition than before. And why take such injurious and expensive drugs when we can obtain from any druggist much cheaper a bottle of Nature's own remedy—the famous Mineral Laxative Water—HUNYADI JÁNOS—bottled at the springs in Hungary; in use nearly half a century. One dose, 16 a tumblerful, drunk on arising in the morning (slightly warmed for best results), will bring within an hour a refreshing movement—gentle, natural, and thorough—without any griping or burning or other bad effects. A whole bottle costs but a trifle. Keep one always on hand. At all Druggists.

The Supreme Leaders

BY BRANDER MATTHEWS

BRANDER MATTHEWS has an article in the JANUARY MUNSEY under the above caption, which tells us who are the supreme leaders of the world in War in Music

in Science in Drama
in Sculpture in Oratory
in Painting in Literature

This is a most complete and careful review of the subject—comprehensive and graphic. It is a curious fact that Professor Matthews admits ONLY ONE AMERICAN to the class of The Supreme Leaders.
